Simulating Knowledge Dynamics – Training and Work in Progress

Federico II University, Naples, Italy, 19–22 May 2015

This four day event combined the presentation and discussion of progress in simulating knowledge dynamics with a summer school on SKIN concepts, methods and operational skills. The workshop / training school took place at Federico II University, Naples (Italy), from 19 to 22 May 2015 and was supported by COST as Training School of the COST Action KnowEscape.

Keynotes:

- Prof. Fernando Buarque (ERCIS - Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster)
- Mark Knell (NIFU Nordic Institute for Studies in Innovation, Research and Education)

The gathering included three elements:

- An introductory day with high-level experts in the field of simulating knowledge dynamics. Experts gave lectures on central topics important for young researchers (conceptual issues, data-to-model, verification and validation etc.)

- Two days of teaching and training with two strands for early career researchers: Strand 1 (for Beginners) a “Starter kit” for SKIN modellers: basic concepts, basic applications, how-to-get-started, programming; Strand 2 (more Advanced) “Work in progress” of knowledge dynamics models: presentation and discussion of own projects with experts in small groups; advice and guidance on own projects
- A concluding day with plenary presentations and discussions of results, progress made, next steps, outlook of the field
